

THE NATIONAL GALLERY

Summer on the Square is a month-long festival of free creative activity happening throughout the whole of August outside the National Gallery on Trafalgar Square.

We are developing 5 activities, for the public to enjoy, and would love your help in making this a festival made by children for children.

Saturday 15 June 11am-4pm (Free, Drop in)

Drop in to room 8 in the National Gallery and help us shape and test out activities that will eventually be delivered as part of the Summer on the Square programme in August.

Thursday 1 August – Sunday 1 September 11am-1pm & 2pm-4pm (Free, Drop in)

Visit Summer on the Square with your family to see the festival in full swing.

Enjoy not only taking part in the creative activities but the jungle themed Take One Picture exhibition will be sharing the tent space with us, on Trafalgar Square, displaying artworks made by primary school children, all inspired by Henri Rousseau's painting 'Surprised!'
